Yes, it got through. I haven't gone through it yet, though.

Miguel, did the group get the large email I just sent. It was 2 MB?

The construction permit for the transmission main to University Park was issued December 23, 2015. The operating permit was not granted until March 27, 2018. We are still waiting for the timeline requested on Sunday or Monday.

I was just going to email you back to disregard the email since I hadn't gotten to your other email yet.

What date did the switch actually take place in 2017?
